THE 36TH ANNUAL NATIONAL SERVICE-LEARNING CONFERENCE®

The Next Chapter: Intention, Impact, Equity

SAINT PAUL, MN ● MARCH 26 - 29, 2025

Prepare to embark on a journey into the next chapter of service-learning excellence at The 36th Annual National Service-Learning Conference® in the dynamic setting of Saint Paul, MN! Join a vibrant community of educators, nonprofit leaders, students, and visionaries from around the globe as we delve into The Next Chapter: Intention, Impact, Equity—a theme that will guide our exploration of how intentional actions can drive meaningful impact and advance equity in our communities and beyond.

Every session, workshop, and conversation will be infused with the spirit of intentionality, the pursuit of impact, and the commitment to equity. As you connect with fellow attendees, share stories, and forge new partnerships, you'll experience firsthand the power of service-learning and youth leadership in driving change across the world. The Conference is unique in its design, as it allows attendees to learn from and with young leaders who are using their voice to generate change!

“This conference offers practitioners a rich opportunity to learn, share, and experience service-learning firsthand. With insightful sessions, valuable networking opportunities, and practical strategies, it's a must-attend event for anyone passionate about making a positive impact through service-learning.”
